PRINCIPAL'S CORNER

Dear HNM Community,

As we are watching numbers rise to alarming rates and we struggle to discern the safest choices for our individual families, Holy Name of Mary is having the same struggles. For now, we are going to take the conservative approach and limit all in school services until the numbers decrease. Preschool will continue to stay open at this time unless we hear otherwise, but all the high needs programs will meet on zoom.

We all have different beliefs. Those beliefs translate into actions. At this time, we all need to consider the impact of our choices on those around us. As we plan for returning to school with the K-2 waiver, what choices do we need to make as a community to help keep all members as safe as possible. Your actions impact others. Please be safe and limit contact with others out of respect for the health of your community who may not have the same beliefs or immunities that you have.

Children's Christmas Mass

The school is in charge of the Children's Christmas Eve Mass. I am excited that we have an opportunity to engage our children in the Mass. I will be sending out an email tomorrow detailing all that we need. We will be asking for students to dress up people in the Nativity as well as illustrating a story. All these will be used as part of the Mass. I can't wait to see what you come up with!!

Gratefully,
Debbie Marquez

REFLECTING SUNDAY'S GOSPEL MESSAGE

Mark 1:1-5, 7-8

Reflecting on the Word

In the very first verse of his Gospel, Mark identifies Jesus as not just the Son of David, the Messiah, whom the Jewish people were long awaiting, but the Son of God. We are then introduced to John the Baptist, who prepares the way for the Son of God by preaching repentance and forgiveness of sins.

To sin is to separate or alienate oneself from God. John offered baptism to those who repented their sins before God and readied themselves to receive God's forgiveness, while acknowledging that one is coming who can baptize them not just with water, but with the Holy Spirit.

.....ON THE WAY TO MASS

At Mass, we will hear John the Baptist preparing the way of the Lord. Listen closely to what he says we need to do.

ON THE WAY HOME FROM MASS.....

How can we ready our spirits for the Son of God this Advent?

Living the Word

On this Second Sunday of Advent, add a visual representation of the Holy Spirit to your family's nativity. Use red and orange tissue paper to decorate a glass votive (a mason or jelly jar will do) and light a votive candle inside. Or draw and cut out doves to fly over the manger. Pray together for the Holy Spirit to come and fill your hearts.
